

Leadership MBA Admissions Requirements

Each MBA applicant must submit the following to the Brescia University STARS Office:

1. A completed Leadership MBA application and a non-refundable $50 application fee;
2. Official transcripts from all institutions of higher education previously attended;
3. A transcript showing a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or above for the completed undergraduate degree;
4. Evidence of the completion of GMAT with a minimum score of 400 or GRE with a score of at least 400 on both the verbal and the analytical sections. Non-native English speaking individuals must have a minimum Toefel score of 100 in addition to the GMAT or GRE exam. The scores must be sent directly from the Educational Testing Service to Brescia University's STARS Office. An applicant must have a total of at least 900 points based on the formula: 200 times the overall GPA plus the GMAT score; or have at least 1300 points based on the formula: 200 times the overall GPA plus the GRE scores;
5. Two letters of reference; and
6. A statement outlining the student's academic and career goals and indicating why the student wishes to pursue the MBA degree.

The application will be reviewed by the Admissions Committee upon receipt of all required materials. An applicant who meets the above criteria may be accepted unconditionally into the degree program.

Applicants failing to meet the minimum admissions requirements will be considered on an individual basis by the Admissions Committee.

Following the review of application materials, the Admissions Committee may recommend one of the following:

1. Grant admission as a regular student,
2. Grant admission as a non-degree student,
3. Deny admission.

Non-degree Students: Non-degree students may take no more than 6 credit hours.

Credit Transfer: Students may transfer up to six credit hours or two courses into the MBA program. The graduate committee will determine if transferred courses are equivalent to Brescia's MBA courses in terms of content and requirement. Only courses with a grade of B or higher may be transferred.
