VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF HISTORY

PR# 15-37

Brescia University, a private Catholic liberal arts institution, invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track Assistant Professor of History position, starting in August 2016. The qualified candidate, as a generalist in History, will teach a wide range of general education courses including U.S. History and World Civilization. Candidates must hold a terminal degree in History. Preference will be given to candidates with broad regional and/or topic-based fields, and who have experience in active learning teaching methodology and with online teaching. The chosen candidate will be responsible for teaching both intro and upper-division history courses, including some online classes; student advisement; and University committee service. The University seeks candidates who have a passion for their discipline and who can successfully invite students to engage in that same love of history.

Interested applicants should send a letter of intent, curriculum vitae, teaching philosophy, unofficial transcripts, and at least three recommendation letters to Tammy Keller, Director of Human Resources, at tammy.keller@brescia.edu or to the following address: Tammy Keller, Director of Human Resources, PR#15-37, Brescia University, 717 Frederica Street, Owensboro, KY, 42301.

Applications accepted until the position is filled. EOE; diversity candidates urged to apply.

Brescia University is a Catholic, liberal arts institution founded in the Ursuline tradition of personal and social transformation through education.
