VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR IN MS CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY

PR# 21-29

Brescia University, an Ursuline, Catholic institution, seeks a tenure-track Assistant Professor in MS Clinical Psychology beginning January 2023. Teaching responsibilities include twelve credit hours per semester in a classroom mix of online and on-ground students. Graduate program requirements include serving on committees, providing academic and career advising to students, participating in professional development, contributing to course and program assessment and development as needed, service to the community, and assisting with other activities of the program and university. Ph.D. or Psy.D. by the time of appointment is preferred.

The graduate clinical psychology program seeks candidates with experience in health service psychology who are committed to teaching excellence in a university where faculty are given pedagogical and instructional supports to help them and their students succeed.

Benefits include but are not limited to health, dental, life insurance, retirement, and tuition.

Send a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, unofficial transcripts, and contact information for three references to the Office of Human Resources at HR@Brescia.edu or mail to:
