VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Psychology Adjuncts

Brescia University, located in Owensboro KY, is a Catholic liberal arts institution founded in the Ursuline tradition of personal and social transformation through education. Directed to academic and moral excellence in a student-centered environment, the vision of Brescia is to be a moral and intellectual powerhouse, adapting to the needs of the 21st century and beyond.

Brescia University is seeking adjunct instructors for the online psychology program. Brescia offers both a BS in psychology and an MS in Clinical Psychology. Applicants should have a PhD or PsyD in Psychology. Applicants ABD or with a Masters in Psychology will be considered for the undergraduate program. Some of the classes include, but are not limited to undergraduate and graduate Abnormal Psychology, Social Psychology, Biopsychology, Research Methods, Cognitive Psychology, Developmental Psychology, Psychology of Addictions, Counseling Psychology, Educational Psychology, Forensic Psychology, and Industrial/Organizational Psychology. Additional courses needed at the graduate level include, but are not limited to Advanced Adult Development, Advanced Child Development, Substance Abuse & Addictions, Research Methods, Statistics, and classes in Cognitive-Affective Bases of Psychology.

Brescia's psychology program is student-centered and devoted to giving students a solid foundation in the psychological sciences. Many of our students pursue graduate school after graduation. Online undergraduate classes last 8 weeks and meet synchronously at least one hour per week. Graduate classes offered in both online and on-ground formats for 15 weeks.

Send letter of application with current CV, a copy of graduate transcripts, evidence of teaching effectiveness (if available), and three letters of recommendation to HR@brescia.edu or mail to:
